1.10 COMPUTATION OF TIME

When a public office in which an act, required by law, is to be performed is closed to the public for the entire day, which constitutes the last day for doing such act or before its usual closing time on such day, then such act may be performed on the next succeeding day which is not Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday as defined in Ohio Revised Code Section 1.14.

“Legal holiday” as used in this section means the days as set forth in Ohio Revised Code Section 1.14. If any day, designated in Ohio Revised Code Section 1.14 as a legal holiday, falls on a Sunday, then the next succeeding day is a legal holiday.

If the number of months is to be computed by counting the months from a particular day, the period ends on the same numerical day, in the concluding month, as the day of the month from which the computation is begun, unless there are not that many days in the concluding month, in which case the period ends on the last day of the month.

1.11 IRRECONCILABLE AMENDMENTS

If amendments are enacted at the same or different times, one amendment without reference to another, the amendments are to be harmonized, if possible, so that the effect may be given to each. If the amendments are substantively irreconcilable, the latest date of enactment prevails. The fact that a later amendment restates language deleted by an earlier amendment, or fails to include language inserted by an earlier amendment, does not of itself make the amendments irreconcilable. Amendments are irreconcilable only when changes made by each cannot reasonably be put into simultaneous operation.

1.12 CONTINUATION OF PRIOR AMENDMENT

A provision or regulation which is reenacted, or amendment, is intended to be a continuation of the prior provision or regulation and not a new enactment, so far as it is the same as the prior provision or regulation.

1.13 EFFECT OF AMENDMENT

The amendment of this Resolution does not:

- A. Affect the prior operation of this Resolution or any prior action taken thereunder.
- B. Affect any validation, cure, right, privilege, obligation, or liability previously acquired, accrued, accorded, or incurred thereunder.
- C. Affect any violation thereof or penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect thereto prior to the amendment or repeal.
- D. Affect any investigation, proceeding, or remedy in respect to any such privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment; and the investigation, proceeding, or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced and the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment imposed, as if the Resolution had not been amended.
