The Public Hearing of the Auburn Township Board of Trustees was called to order at 7:15 p.m. by Chairman Michael S. Troyan. All Trustees were present. The purpose of the PUBLIC HEARING was for the proposed Zoning Amendment ZC2024-01.

Chairman Troyan asked David C. Dietrich, Consultant to the Auburn Zoning Commission, to give a brief overview of the amendment. Mr. Dietrich explained it is a text amendment for allowing family cemeteries on private property to agree with Ohio Revised Code provisions for Ohio Townships. They are a permitted use in residential zoning, excluding public parks. Non-family cemeteries are currently classified in the Zoning Resolution as a conditional use.

The Resolution was also updated, per the Ohio Revised Code, for Wind Farms.

Discussion took place with the Trustees, Mr. Dietrich and Vice Chairman of the Zoning Commission, Scott Brockman. There were no comments from the public.
