Roll call was taken.

Members present: Dennis Bergansky, Angela Daugherty, Chad Canfield and Scott Brockman.

Members absent: Jeff Pulsford, Greg Lackey and Ted Van Hyning.

David Dietrich was also present.

Auburn Township resident Ron Gall was in attendance.

Minutes were recorded by J. Hardy.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Angela Daugherty.

Members reviewed the meeting minutes from the February 8, 2024, Zoning Commission Meeting.

There were no comments or corrections.

Motion by Scott Brockman to approve the meeting minutes from February 8, 2024.

The motion was seconded by Dennis Bergansky.

Vote: Brockman, yes; Bergansky, yes; Canfield, yes; and Daugherty, yes.

The motion was approved.

Mr. Brockman moved on to finishing up the food truck amendment. Frank Kitko's input was discussed regarding requiring a zoning permit for a food truck. A discussion took place. Mr. Dietrich suggested that the permit be issued to the commercial property owner where the food truck will be located.

After a discussion, the Commission finalized the food truck amendment.

A discussion took place regarding outdoor dining requirements. Mr. Brockman was informed that this was his suggestion for a possible amendment. Mr. Brockman will research this and this topic will be readdressed at a later meeting.

The Commission proceeded to New Business which was bus stops. Discussions took place regarding the height of the bus stop, how long it should remain on the property, who is allowed to use it and other miscellaneous items regarding a bus stop.

The amendment for bus stops and food trucks will be put into final form for the Commission to review at the next meeting.
